Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

THOMAS TAATJES*Tommy*779 Broadway*General*Navy

Tom "Thumb" with a barrel of personality and enthusiasm, has certainly been an asset to our class. After graduation he will lose his aversion to school, but is sure to gain another in the Navy, namely work.

Boys' Club 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 3.

Class Ode

Farewell to thee, O Saugus High, we hail thee as we go;
These happy hours we'll ne'er forget, the gratitude we owe
For lessons taught us day by day to train for life ahead,
As with uncertain footsteps we our chosen pathways tread.

The thorns, it seems, are always with the laurel leaf entwined;
Roads to success are seldom straight, through failure oft they wind;
And when our route is periled, and no refuge is in sight,
We know that knowledge gained from thee will be a guiding light.

We praise and thank thee for the learning in each classroom gained,
For friendships true, for memories, for honors here attained,
For loyalties, ambitions, and desire to excell,
For noble purpose, and all else—as now we bid farewell.

Words by Richard Elliot Otte and Alan Richard Mooers

Music by Shirley May Weinbrecht

BAND

McNamara had a band, so the old song goes, but so does Saugus High — under the capable direction of Mr. Jerome Mitchell. The rollicky rhythm made by its instrumentalists is evidence of the joy of its musicians. There is an innate pleasure in belonging to a group which only by co-operation can create perfection.

During the past year the band has brightened the football scene with its precision marching, bright uniforms, and the brilliant performances of its twirlers. They have also participated in outstanding events.

Such events were the Seventeenth Annual Concert at Lynn City Hall; the New England Festival at the University of Connecticut; and the Greater Lynn Festival which included bands from Swampscott, Lynn, and Marblehead.

Divisions of the band are the Boys' Dance Orchestra, Girls' Orchestra, Dixieland Band, Saxophone Quintet, and Brass Quintet.

Our drum majorette, Marcia Blake, was chosen co-champion of all twirlers in the state of Massachusetts.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Character, scholarship, service, and leadership are the keys that open the door of membership in the Sachem Chapter of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools.

Clyde Allen was elected President this year; Richard Dudman, Vice-President; Lucille Losano, Secretary; and Lucy Kasparian, Treasurer. Miss Fox is the adviser.

New senior members elected in 1953 were; Barbara Malfetano, Judith Cochrane, Leslie Lawrence, Joan Hanlon, Frances Chiabrandy, Shirley Weinbrecht, Lorene Atkins, Marcia McCann, Edward Eidukonis. The honor of being elected from the Junior class went to Gerald Pinciss. Sophomores who received the good news of election as probationary members were: Mary Dumphy, Joan Forward, Sandra Hecht, Richard Krom, Charles Ames, Muriel Bryant, Louise Wallis, Virginia Moss, Malcolm Rice, Judith Shay, Patricia Atkinson, Paul Downing, Kenneth Maguire, Joanne Casperian, Joan Glinski, Margaret Hohmann, Dorothy Richards.

The Society has interested itself in school welfare by selling book covers (in cooperation with the Student Council), contributing to charity, and devoting the proceeds of its annual dance to a scholarship fund. They also held a panel discussion of the subject "Is the Present Marking System as Good as the Old One?"

Along with these activities they have enjoyed various social events throughout the year; among them were a Christmas party, a field trip to the Peabody Museum at Harvard, and a Beach Party.

GIRLS' CLUB

The Girls' Club officers who were installed in September are President, Ann Smith; Vice-President, Paula Haley; Secretary, Sheila Banks; Treasurer, Marilyn Philips; Committee chairman are: Ways and Means, Alice Watson; Social, Helen Luoma; Membership, Dorothy Williams; Program, Betsy Nelson; and Service, Ann Miles. Club Advisor is Miss Hayward.

The Cabinet tries to present a variety of programs, educational, inspirational, and entertaining which will be of interest to teen-age girls.

Since the club charges no dues it runs one money-making venture during the year which is the ever-successful Christmas Dance. The money made from the dance goes into incidental expenses, program planning, and it also pays for the reception given each June to the Freshman girls entering in September. At the reception, club members from the Junior class conduct these girls on a tour of the school to familiarize them with it, the old and new cabinets are introduced, and refreshments are served.

Each year the club makes a substantial gift which will be useful to the girls of the school.

THE SENIOR PLAY

"Our Miss Brooks" was presented Friday, February twentieth, at the Veterans' Memorial School. Congratulations to Mrs. Jasper Anderson, who gave freely of her time and patience in directing. Mr. Davis supervised the make-up committee. The Usherettes, in their gayly colored gowns, graciously performed their duties.

The class of '53 will never forget —
 Dewie White's — "The plane may not make it—Stanley, it's getting closer."
 Lorene Atkin's — "I'll run him right over."
 Chuck Healey's — "I've hidden talents."
 Selma London's — "You're blinding me."
 Barbara Nelson's — "We don't get to wear any costumes."
 Joan Hanlon's — "A little soap wouldn't hurt you."
 Joyce Flanagan's — "Dont go, Conway."
 Allan Gustafson's — "Martin."
 Marcia McCann's — "What's a girl to do?"
 Judy Cochrane's — "I've forgotten my lines."
 Shirley Weinbrecht's — "It was beautiful, absolutely beautiful."
 George Gregson's — "I've got a pain in my side."
 Loretta Thorne's — "How wonderful—to be Rhonda Allen."
 Eddie Elder's — "I don't want anymore trouble."
 Louise Burns' — "Curtain time in thirty minutes."
 Larry Anderson's — "Martin just slipped and fell. I think he sprained something."

FOOTBALL FOLIO

REVERE

Saugus got off to a bad start against Revere, when early in the game Skip D'Eramo scooted 79 yards for a T. D. Saugus pushed Revere around and finally scored when Earl Sanford recovered a fumble and Mike Matt threw to Dick White on the 5 from which Dick fought his way over the goal line. Larry Anderson's kick was high enough but too wide; the half ended 6 to 6. The third period was scoreless with George Nicholson breaking up Revere end-run threats. Art Mallace, the Revere quarterback threw to George Fusco who scored with five minutes to go. The Sachems desperately threw passes but too late and Revere won 12 to 6.

CAMBRIDGE LATIN

With four varsity men lost in the early minutes of the game, Saugus took its second defeat from Cambridge Latin. A Matt-to-Flaherty pass, a ten-yard run by Charlie Lawrence and a line plunge by Larry Anderson enabled Saugus to score first. The first half was all Saugus, but in the second half the absence of the first string began to tell and Latin scored twice. After Saugus had to punt into the wind, Romano and Noble drove to the Saugus goal line where Romano scored. Noble got the extra point. Romano intercepted a Saugus pass and scooted to the Saugus 18. Noble heaved to Romano, who scored, and the Cantabs won 13 - 6.

CLASSICAL

Saugus played the best game of the season against the Palumbo boys. Although missing three first stringers, Saugus scored twice. The first half Saugus absorbed the Classical offense and played strictly defensive ball. In the second half Billy MacNeill and Billy Whittredge continually poured through the Classical line for big gains. Whittredge finally climaxed the grand attack by scampering to pay dirt. Later in the fourth period Billy Whittredge ran 40 yards for another T. D. Classical drives were stopped short by Doug MacNeill and Chuck Healey with George Nicholson stopping the Rams' air attack. Saugus 12 — Classical 0.

MARBLEHEAD

The old curse hit Saugus again at Marblehead as Saugus fumbled twice, each fumble setting up a Marblehead touchdown. The combination of Colbert and Andrew with a brilliant passing attack scored twice in the first half. The first T. D. was set up by a Saugus fumble with Colbert pitching to Andrews for the score. Again Saugus fumbled and Andrews threw to Colbert for the second score. In the third period Colbert threw to Andrews who, after a twenty-five yard run, scored. Too late, the Sachems' offense began to move. Determinedly the Sachems pushed Marblehead back to the ten yard line where Bill MacNeill skirted around end for an only score. Chuck Healey booted the extra point easily. Marblehead 20 — Saugus 7.

BROOKLINE

In the fifth play after the opening kick-off, Frank Salamain, Brookline half-back, raced 52 yards for a T. D. Saugus took over and in the second period was twice deep in Brookline's territory but was unable to score. A Sachem pass was intercepted on the Saugus 30 and Frank Salamain scored from the Sachems' 7. Rollins converted. The third period ended 10 to 0 in favor of the Wealthy Towners. The fourth period saw Brookline scoring twice on an intercepted pass and a 61 yard run by Frank Salamain. Outstanding linemen on offense were Earl Sanford and Dick Warren. Brookline 21 — Saugus 0.

ENGLISH

English had one of its most powerful outfits to meet Saugus. The god of fumbles was with us again as Saugus fumbled on the first play. In a couple of minutes English scored as Marbito scampered over the goal line. Art Boland hit Bob Poor with a 64 yard pass for English's second. In the second period Saugus got moving and, although not scoring, scrapped well both on offense and defense. The second half was different. Marbito pitched to Boland on the 7 where, on the next play, Marbito scampered over. English scored the extra point, a fake punt and a pass play. Marbito then scored from the eight. Sophomore Bob Piwowarski played a brilliant game at fullback in place of Larry Anderson. Ken St. Pierre and Dave Donaldson were defensive king pins, English 25 — Saugus 0.

AMESBURY

Right off the bat Jack Bourque grabbed a Sachem punt and scooted almost to the Saugus line where Amesbury scored on an end sweep. An Amesbury pass and a Saugus fumble caused the Tasinari boys to score twice more. The Class C champs scored twice more in the third quarter on a pass and a blocked Saugus punt. Final 33 - 0.

CHELSEA

Chelsea with one of its best teams in many years also downed Saugus. The first period was Saugus's best, holding Chelsea scoreless. In the second period Chelsea scored twice. In the third period George Nicholson intercepted a pass and galloped for a Sachem T. D. The third and fourth periods were bad for Saugus as Chelsea scored three more times. Final score, Chelsea 31 — Saugus 6.

SALEM

Ronnie Normand, Salem Captain, scored three of the four touchdowns for Salem. In the second period George Levesque scored the last Salem T. D. George Nicholson again scored on an intercepted pass. Mal Rice scored also after two long Saugus drives. Salem 28 — Saugus 13.

PEABODY

The last game of the season took place on Thanksgiving morning at Stackpole's Field. A good crowd watched Peabody score twice in the first period on passes. Both attempts at the extra point were missed. In the second period the Sachems defensive hardened and stopped the Tanners in their tracks. The half ended twelve to nothing in favor of Peabody. In the third quarter Saugus was put back into the ball game when Co-Captain George Nicholson, for the third time this season, intercepted a pass and galloped over for a T. D. Co-Captain Chuck Healey converted but it was too late. Although the Sachems fought valiantly the clock ran out with Saugus deep in Peabody territory. The last games final score was Peabody 12 — Saugus 7.

BASKETBALL

The 1952 - 1953 season opened with a loss of 49 - 41 to St. Mary's of Lynn.

Identical losing scores of 56 - 36 marked the next two games: Punchard and Malden Catholic. Diamond, Dudman, Piwowarski and White had been leading scorers in these first three meets.

The first win came over Winthrop 50 - 45, Lawrence and Bob Diamond leading in points netted.

A misunderstanding in game time that brought the team to Newburyport five hours too early could explain the Sachems' loss of this contest 69 - 54. Lawrence and Piwowarski did the honors here.

Swampscott next outscored the Sachems 69 - 64 with Bill MacNeill and Bob Diamond high men.

Against the Alumni the team fared well, winning 65 - 50, with the same twosome as high scorers.

At Chelmsford the Diamonds teamed up to assure a 73 - 56 victory.

Punchard over Saugus 57 - 39 was the outcome of the next contest. Dudman was high scorer. With Lawrence and White doing the honors, Swampscott was downed by a 63 - 45 score, then Newburyport was the victor over Saugus 66 - 45.

In a thriller down to the final whistle, Winthrop prevailed 52 - 51 with Nat Diamond and White as high men. Methuen also defeated us 57 - 48.

Chelmsford received its second defeat by a score of 59 - 38, but Malden Catholic and Methuen captured the next two games with scores of 57 - 41 and 67 - 65 respectively. Bill MacNeill, Nat Diamond, and White were high scorers.

In the Small Schools' Tournament, Christopher Columbus was the victor 49 - 40 with the Diamonds receiving scoring honors.

HOCKEY

The Saugus High Hockey Team started the season of 1952 - 1953 with Mike Matt and Tommy Meagher as Co-Captains. The team experienced a fine season under these two leaders.

Pabody bet Saugus 5 - 2 in the first game of the season. Gene Hunt and Dick Murphy took turns in the nets and both looked fine.

Saugus won its first game by beating Amesbury 4 - 2. Tommy Meagher collected three goals in this victory.

Saugus and Lynn English fought to a 1 - 1 tie. Dave Donaldson scored the lone Saugus goal while Gene Hunt made thrilling saves in the nets.

Danvers was too strong for Saugus taking the Sachems 3 - 2. Mike Matt played excellent hockey, caging both Saugus goals.

Gloucester tied us 2 - 2. The game was hard fought with the Sachems leading most of the way. Gene Hunt made many terrific saves and was awarded the Most Valuable Player for the night.

Saugus beat Salem 4 - 1 with George Nicholson, playing his first game this season and scoring two goals.

Saugus easily won over Marblehead 4 - 0. Gene Hunt and Dick Murphy teamed up for the first shut-out of the season. Bill Poland's playing resulted in 2 goals, while Chalifoux and Matt had one each.

Saugus beat Swampscott 2 - 1 as the Sachems played one of their best games. Mike Matt was absent from the lineup, but Tommy Meagher played well at center ice. Jack Lawrence was moved from defense to wing to fill in for Meagher, and Glen Agersea filled in on defense for Lawrence.

Classical proved too strong for the Saugus boys by beating them 2 - 0. This was the first time this season the Sachems were held scoreless.
